- An art journal, or artist's journal, is a book kept by an artist as a visual, and sometimes verbal, record of their thoughts and ideas.
- Art journals generally combine visual journaling and writing, to create finished pages. Every imaginable style, media and technique is used by art journalists.
- When it comes to the types of work represented in artist journals, there really aren't any rules, and each book is as unique as the artist who created it.
- Examples of Journal artists are Teesha Moore, Tracy Moore, Tracy Bunkers and Karen Michel.
