

🖫 Recap – Bristol The Location and Importance of 海南 a City in the UK

Across
4. Bristol has the largest concentration of silicon chip manufacturing outside of which area?	²a		n
5. The area of England where Bristol is located.
Down
1. The country where Bristol is located.	0		ι
2. One of two rivers that flow through 4C a lifor	n	i	а
Bristol.			n
3. The function of Bristol
when the area first developed. SSOUUTH WEST			d

Bristol – Location and importance - Fill in the missing words below.
Bristol is located in the southwest of England. It lies approximately 120 miles west ofLondon, at the confluence of the Rivers Frome and Avon.
Bristol is near the historic cities of Bath to the southeast and Gloucester to the north .
Between the last two censuses, the population of Bristol increased by 10.3 %, from just over 428,200 in 2011 to around The population here increased by a greater percentage than the overall population of the South West (7.8%) and by a greater percentage than the overall population of England (up 6.6% since the 2011 Census).
Bristol is one of the UK's eleven ' core cities' and is a city of regional and

472,500 core London 120 southwest Bath north 2021 10.3 England

Winternet geography

Why did Bristol grow? - Read the statements below and identify whether they are true or false.	Т	F
Bristol developed as a port in the middle ages and supported trade with other countries.	х
Bristol developed as a market town in the middle ages as part of the local agricultural economy.		х
During the industrial revolution, Bristol developed into a major mill town.		х
Bristol developed in the 18th century as part of the triangular trade linking West Africa and the West Indies.	х
By the mid-20 th century, Bristol expanded to become a large urban centre.	х
By the mid-20 th century, Bristol experienced counter urbanisation leading to the city becoming smaller.		х national importance.

The national and international impor	tance of Bristol - Read the statements below. Id
Bristol has excellent transportation links, with a major seaport, airport, and good rail and road connections to other parts	Bristol has the largest concentration of silicon chip manufacture outside California.
of the UK.	The city is known for its thriving arts scene, with a Bristol Bradford airport links the city to	rich history in music, film, and theatre.
major European centres.	The University of Bristol has more than 6,750
Bristol has a strong economy, with a particular emphasis on the aerospace	international students from more than 150 countries.
industry, defence, media, information n technology and financial services sectors.	Bristol's economy plays a role in the global Bristol is home to two universities. n	marketplace, particularly in the aerospace industry.

entify the national (n) and internation	nal (i) importance of Bristol.
Bristol played a significant role in England	ol played a significant role in England's maritime history.
Bristol's cultural exports, including its music scene, Banksy's street art, and Wallace an Gromit animations, have gained international recognition.
Bristol's history as a major player in the transatlantic slave trade links it to many parts of the globe, especially the Caribbean and Africa.	Shade each box to show whether the statement refers to social and/or economic importance. Complete the key
The city has a high level of inward investment, including Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) in manufacturing, finance and hi-tech business.	below:  Social  Economic  Social and economic				